CITIZENS' GUARD CHANGES

Reorganization Which Will Give Sixteen Companies Instead of Seven.

The Membership in Some of the Old Companies was so Large as to be Cumbersome.

The officers of the Guard in conjunction with Marshal Brown have been engaged for some time past in perfecting a reorganization of the Citizens' Guard, which will probably be effected in a few days.

Under the old plan there were seven companies, in some of which as high as a hundred and fifty men were enrolled. This was found to be unsatisfactory for many reasons; the officers did not know all their men, there were too many men in proportion to the officers and the territories to be covered were too large and too scattered.

Under the reorganization there will be sixteen companies, each commanded by a captain, who will have under him three lieutenants and three sergeants. In case of necessity one lieutenant and one sergeant will be on duty for eight hours at a time, the captain of course having general supervision at any time in the 24 hours. With sixteen companies the membership will be reduced so that no company will have less than twenty men nor more than seventy-five. Some of the larger districts will be divided into three and others into two, while some entirely new districts will be formed.

Under the proposed plan each man in the new companies will be personally acquainted with every other man in his company, the captain will know where every man lives and as to be found in working hours, and the members will not be called to go far from their homes except in case of actual trouble.

In connection with this change a rumor has been circulated that the companies are to be put on a stricter and more military footing. There is not a word of truth in this, and the members are assured that they will not be called on to do anything more in the future than they have in the past.

Fine Carriages.

Have you ever come to think that you need a new carriage or harness. If not, why not? Go to Schuman's Carriage and Harness Repository, Club Stable block, and see the large stock of the latest style in buggies, phaetons and surreys, etc. He has just received by the W. G. Irwin, among a line of carriages, a few of the celebrated Cortland Jurep seat, buckboards with canopy tops, finished in light colors throughout. They are beauties. Come and examine them. Prices of all these goods are lower than elsewhere.

The Great Rugby Game.

This is the afternoon of the great Rugby football match at Makiki. The game is for charity. In the selection of teams care has been exercised to have them as near evenly matched as possible. The contest will certainly be exciting, and there is every promise that the crowd will be a large one.

Match Shoot Today.

Teams of the National Guard are competing at Kakaako butts this afternoon for the Foreign office trophy. The match rests between the two regular companies and D and G of the volunteers. Captain John Schaefer is in charge at the range.
